

Reliable Market Reports
STOCK NOTES, SALES, AGRICULTURAL MATTERS OF INTEREST
To All On The Farm.
ALL THE LOCAL NEWS
ALSO STATE AND NATIONAL.
The LEDGER During the Present Year will be Better than Before, if Renewed Energy Can Make It So.

A cream of tartar baking powder—Highest of all in leavening strength.—
Latest U.S. Gov't Food Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

Established by Government Tests the Standard Baking Powder. The very Giant of leavening agents. Has a larger use than all other cream of tartar baking powders combined.

Prof. HAINES, of Rush Medical College, Consulting Chemist Chicago Board of Health: "I find the Royal Baking Powder superior to all the others in every respect."

Dr. H. A. MOTT, U. S. Government Chemist: "The Royal is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder made."

Prof. PALMER, University of Illinois: "I find Royal Baking Powder invariably composed of wholesome ingredients, entirely free from adulteration or impurities of any kind."

SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF HEALTH: "In our judgment it is impossible to make a purer or stronger baking powder than the

THE N. Y. STATE ANALYST: "The Royal Baking Powder is superior to any other powder which I have examined."

THE MINNESOTA STATE CHEMIST: "I consider the Royal one of the best baking powders made."

WISCONSIN FOOD COMMISSIONER: "Royal Baking Powder is of high and uniform strength and quality; its ingredients pure and wholesome."

INDIANA STATE CHEMIST: "Royal Baking Powder is perfectly free from any deleterious ingredients."

THE N. Y. STATE ANALYST: "The Royal Baking Powder is superior to any other powder which I have examined."

THE MINNESOTA STATE CHEMIST: "I consider the Royal one of the best baking powders made."

WISCONSIN FOOD COMMISSIONER: "Royal Baking Powder is of high and uniform strength and quality; its ingredients pure and wholesome."

INDIANA STATE CHEMIST: "Royal Baking Powder is perfectly free from any deleterious ingredients."

Judge Waxem's Political Proverbs. If a man is known by the cum-	$100 Reward for Martin. One hundred dollars reward is
---	--

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the politismen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of licker.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like cnything else.

Entered by Mrs. Emma Martin from the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plow with him and will probably be able to make machine shops or foundries.

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the politismen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of licker.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like cnything else.

Entered by Mrs. Emma Martin from the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plow with him and will probably be able to make machine shops or foundries.

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of liker.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like emnything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better go to Heaven.

The government shark ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold office and be a gentleman at the same time, so they hold office.

Stealin' an office ain't got the onored by Mrs. Emma Martin for the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plow with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries. He is, about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less pollickits in a jug of licker.

Good pollickits is as good as bad pollickits is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like anything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better go to Heaven.

The government shak ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold office and be a gentleman at the same time, so they ain't off.

Stealin' an office hold off the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast fer personal popularity than fer efishensy.

Mexico Girls.
From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular hoss town. They all talk hoss. Yes, honored by Mrs. Emma Martin from the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plow with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries.

He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When he left he wore a brown sack overcoat with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hair chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Mexico,

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of licker.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like anything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better go to Heaven.

The government shuck ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold office and be a gentleman at the same time, so they hold office.

Stealin' an office ain't got the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast for personal popularity than for eficiency.

Mexico City.
From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular hoss town. They all talk hoss. Yes, there ain't much use trying to make an impression on a pretty Mexico girl now-a-days unless you can talk hoss. They can talk records and pedigrees and know the names of drivers an jockeys and owners till it makes you tired. You know I ain't up on horses, and it has spoiled Mexico for me." And he had a far ohered by Mrs. Emma Martin" tor

the arrest and conviction of Jethro
Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plow with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries.
He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When over left with a brown sack underneath with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and had both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hair chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Mexico.

Come Off.
From the Loson Chronicle.

A shrewd shoe dealer in Mexico,
Mo., gets men to steal a pair of shoes from his place, and then when his store is fairly filled with customers the thief walks in and says the shoes are so cheap that he couldn't it was better to pay for them than to steal them. The Mexican peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of licker.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like enything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better go to Heaven.

The government shuck ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold offices and be a gentleman at the same time, so they hold offices.

Stealin' an office ain't got the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast fer personal popularity than fer efishensy.

Mexico Girls.
From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular hoss town. They all talk hoss. Yes, there ain't much use trying to make an impression on a pretty Mexico girl now-a-days unless you can talk hoss. They can talk records and pedigrees and know the names of drivers an jockeys and owners till it makes you tired. You know I ain't up on horses, and it has spoiled Mexico for me." And he had a far away. "Then you'll remember me" he looked in his eyes as he sighed "By-bye."

ordered by Mrs. Emma Martin from the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plow with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries. He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When he left he wore a brown sack overcoat with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and had both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hair chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Mexico.

Come Off.
From the St. Louis Chronicle.

A shrewd shop dealer in Mexico, Mo., gets men to steal a pair of shoes from his place, and then when his store is fairly filled with customers the thief walks in and says the shoes are so cheap that he concluded it was better to pay for them than to steal them. The Mexico paper are losing 25 cents a line by not tumbling to the shrewd scheme.

Testing the Baking Powders.
Comparative Worth Illustrated,
BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LATE CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE

penny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of lickor.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like ennything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better get to Heaven.

The government shak ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold offices and be a gentleman at the same time, so they ain't off.

Stealin' an office hold got the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast fer personal popularity than fer efishensy.

Mexico Girls.
From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular boss town. They all talk hoss. Yes, there ain't much use trying to make an impression on a pretty Mexico girl now-a-days unless you can talk hoss. They can talk records and pedigrees and know the names of drivers an jockeys and owners till it makes you tired. You know I ain't up on horses, and it has spoiled Mexico for me." And he had a far away, "then you'll remember me" look in his eyes as he sighed "By-by."

offered by Mrs. Emma Martin to the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plover with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries. He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When he left with a brown sack overcoat with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hair chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Mexico.

Come Off.
From the St. Louis Chronicle.

A shrewd shoe dealer in Mexico, Mo., gets men to steal a pair of shoes from his place, and then when his store is fairly filled with customers the thief walks in and says the shoes are so cheap that he co-incidently was better to pay for them than to steal them. The Mexican paper are losing 25 cents a line by not tumbling to the shrewd scheme.

---

Testing the Baking Powders.

---

Comparative Worth Illustrated,

BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LEAD CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. PRICES..... Pure Cream Tartar.....
ROYAL .....★ Contains Ammonia.....
UNEQUALLED .....★★★ Alum and Ammonia.....
Taylor's 1 Spoonful ★. Alum and Ammonia.....
MONARCH .....★★★★ Alum and Ammonia.....

penny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of lickor.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like enything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better get to Heaven.

The government shak ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold offices and be a gentleman at the same time, so they ain't offis.

Stealin' an office hold cot the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast fer personal popularity than fer efishnessy.

Mexico Girls,

From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular hoss town. They all talk hoss. Yes, there ain't much use trying to make an impression on a pretty Mexico girl now-a-days unless you can talk hoss." They can talk records and pedigrees and know the names of drivers an jockeys and owners till it makes you tired. You know I ain't up on horses, and it has spoiled Mexico for me." And he had a far away, "then you'll remember me" look in his eyes as he sighed "By-by."

offered by Mrs. Emma Martin through the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plover with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries. He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When he left we wore a brown sack overcoat with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hairs chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Missouri.

Come Off!

From the St. Louis Chronicle.

A shrewd shoe dealer in Mexico, Mo., gets men to steal a pair of shoes from his place, and then when his store is fairly filled with customers the thief walks in and says the shoes are so cheap that he co-incidently was better to pay for them than to steal them. The Mexican paper are losing 25 cents a line by not tumbling to the shrewd scheme.

---

Testing the Baking Powders.

---

Comparative Worth Illustrated,

BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LATE CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. PRICES..... Pure Cream Tartar;
ROYAL.....★ Contains Ammonia.
UNRIVALED.....★★★ Alum and Ammonia.
Taylor's 1 Spoonful ★. Alum and Ammonia.
MONARCH.....★★★★ Alum and Ammonia.

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of lickor.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like enything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better get to Heaven.

The government shak ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold offices and be a gentleman at the same time, so they ain't got.

Stealin' an office hold off the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast fer personal popularity than fer efishensy.

Mexico Girls.
From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular boss town. They all talk boss. Yes, there ain't much use trying to make an impression on a pretty Mexico girl now-a-days unless you can talk boss. They can talk records and pedigrees and know the names of drivers an jockeys and owners till it makes you tired. You know I ain't up on horses, and it has spoiled Mexico for me." And he had a far away, "then you'll remember me" look in his eyes as he sighed "Bye."

offered by Mrs. Emma Martin to the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plover with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries. He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When he left with a brown sack overcoat with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hair chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Mexico.

Come Off.
From the St. Louis Chronicle.

A shrewd shoe dealer in Mexico, Mo., gets men to steal a pair of shoes from his place, and then when his store is fairly filled with customers the thief walks in and says the shoes are so cheap that he co-incident it was better to pay for them than to steal them. The Mexico paper are losing 25 cents a line by not tumbling to the shrewd scheme.

---

Testing the Baking Powders.

---

Comparative Worth Illustrated,

BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LATE CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. PRICES.....
Pure Cream Tartar.....

ROYAL.....
Contains Ammonia.....

UNRIVALED.....
Alum and Ammonia.....

Taylor's 1 Spoonful.....
Alum and Ammonia.....

MONARCH.....
Alum and Ammonia.....

peny he keeps, some candidates had better keep out of the policemen's site.

Thar's more or less politticks in a jug of lickor.

Good politticks is as good as bad politticks is bad.

Law makin' has got to be learned like enything else.

When a man gets too pure to go to the poles to vote, he'd better get to Heaven.

The government shak ought to be blowed out of the water.

Some men ain't quite big enough to hold offices and be a gentleman at the same time, so they ain't got.

Stealin' an office hold off the place on the criminal calander that it ought to have.

More votes is cast fer personal popularity than fer efishensy.

Mexico Girls.
From the Callaway Gazette.

Our reflective drummer friend met us the other day. "Yes," he said, "Mexico is getting to be a regular boss town. They all talk boss. Yes, there ain't much use trying to make an impression on a pretty Mexico girl now-a-days unless you can talk boss. They can talk records and pedigrees and know the names of drivers an jockeys and owners till it makes you tired. You know I ain't up on horses, and it has spoiled Mexico for me." And he had a far away, "then you'll remember me" look in his eyes as he sighed "Bye."

offered by Mrs. Emma Martin to the arrest and conviction of Jethro Martin, who murdered his father at Martinsburg, Mo., on the night of January 26, 1892.

Martin is considered cranky. He has the model or lithograph of a plover with him and will probably be about machine shops or foundries. He is about 30 years old, is about 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, has light hair and red moustache. He has a prominent front teeth gold filled; stoppage in his speech; is not in good health; is very particular about his eating and drinking; prefers to draw all his own drinking water himself.

When he left with a brown sack overcoat with velvet collar, navy blue pants, gray coat, and both stiff hat and fur cap. Took away a gold watch and brown hair chain.

Arrest and wire
GEO. W. ADAMS,
Sheriff of Audrain County, Mexico.

Come Off.
From the St. Louis Chronicle.

A shrewd shoe dealer in Mexico, Mo., gets men to steal a pair of shoes from his place, and then when his store is fairly filled with customers the thief walks in and says the shoes are so cheap that he co-incident it was better to pay for them than to steal them. The Mexico paper are losing 25 cents a line by not tumbling to the shrewd scheme.

---

Testing the Baking Powders.

---

Comparative Worth Illustrated,

BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LATE CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. PRICES.....
Pure Cream Tartar.....

ROYAL.....
Contains Ammonia.....

UNRIVALED.....
Alum and Ammonia.....

Taylor's 1 Spoonful.....
Alum and Ammonia.....

MONARCH.....
Alum and Ammonia.....

in the